

Student Instruction Sheet

Welcome to the Writing Center! We are learning about all things capital today! We must make sure we are using capital letters in our writings! All proper nouns are capitalized, "I" when it is alone, and the beginning of each sentence!

In this center, I want you edit the paragraph below. It has many capitalization mistakes in it! Mark out the wrong letter and replace it with the capitalized one.

After you finish, re-write the paragraph on the following page. Make sure you have corrected all of the mistakes!

Have Fun Writing!

Where are the Capitals?

Read the following paragraph. Make corrections on any words that should be capitalized but are not.

as the teacher, mrs. arizona walked into the room, she smiled at the students. we could tell that she was very excited to start the new school year. i was nervous but my friends all seemed very confident. i was sure franklin elementary would be very different from my last school but i had made some great friends on my soccer team this summer. i was happy to be going to school with them and i knew they would take care of me. september 3rd, the first day of school, would be epic...i hoped.

Where are the Capitals?

Rewrite the paragraph from the previous page with the correct capital letters.

A large area of horizontal dashed lines for handwriting practice, consisting of 20 rows of lines. Each row is designed to help students practice writing capital letters correctly.

Staying Healthy

Dear Students,

Write a paper discussing the facts you know about staying healthy. What are some things we can do to stay healthy? How do those things help us? Remember, this is not an opinionated paper, but an informative paper. Be sure you include only factual information and not how you feel about this topic. Include the topic, facts, and how you know your information. I am excited to learn about being healthy!

Love,

Your Teacher

Staying Healthy

A writing template consisting of 18 horizontal dashed lines, providing a guide for handwriting practice. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page.

Expository Writing

Write an expository paragraph using the prompt below. Make sure to include the words from the word box and include a conclusion!

Prompt: The zoo is a place where many animals live.

My Conclusion:

I Have Used the Following Words:

- ✓ also
- ✓ and
- ✓ another
- ✓ more
- ✓ but

Irregular and Regular

Regular Plural Nouns

Irregular Plural Nouns

dogs

lights loaves deer

adults

pencils

phones

knives

writes children

clouds

sheep